Dear Chief and Council:

Re: Day School Class Action Settlement

We are writing to provide important information regarding the McLean v Canada (Court File No. T-2169-16) Federal Indian Day Schools class action.

On March 12, 2019, Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations, Carolyn Bennett, announced an out-of-court Settlement with Class Members in relation to Canada's establishing and funding of Federal Indian Day Schools ("Indian Day Schools") and its subsequent control and management of the schools, known in the north as Federal Day Schools.

The rights of those who attended a Federal Indian Day School may be affected by this Settlement.

As part of the Settlement, Canada will provide compensation to eligible Survivor Class Members. Compensation ranges from $10,000 for harms associated with attendance at an Indian Day School to $200,000 for repeated incidents of sexual abuse and/or physical assault causing long-term injury. The baseline harm for claims is such that nearly everyone who attended an Indian Day School will be eligible for at least $10,000 in compensation. Eligible Class Members will receive a single payment reflecting the most severe harms they suffered, irrespective of the number of schools attended.

The process to claim compensation will be simple, culturally sensitive, non-adversarial, and user-friendly. There will be minimal verification requirements, and the documentation people may be asked to provide (for example, photos or personal correspondence) will not require a difficult process or third-party to obtain.

To be an eligible Survivor Class Member, a person must have attended one of the identified Indian Day Schools listed on Schedule K to the Settlement Agreement that is available on the Indian Day School website www.indiandayschools.com. There is a built-in process to update the list of schools as needed. If there appears to be a school that needs to be added to the list, please contact Class Counsel with whatever information is available about that particular school. Class Counsel will then provide this information to Canada, which has independent researchers dedicated to investigating these schools. As soon as a new federally-run school is verified, it will be added to the list.

In recognition of the intergenerational trauma caused by the Indian Day Schools, the Settlement also provides for a $200M Legacy Fund that will be used to support commemoration projects, health and wellness projects, and language and culture initiatives. More information on the Legacy Fund is available on the IDS website.

The McLean Settlement Agreement must be approved by the Federal Court before Survivor Class Members can begin making application for compensation.

The enclosed Notice provides information on the Settlement Agreement and next steps, including the Settlement Approval Hearing scheduled to be heard on May 13, 14 and 15, 2019 at the Federal Court, 363 Broadway, Winnipeg, MB R3C 3N9.

Class Counsel is committed to providing support to Class Members throughout this process. Whether in person, through our call centre, at our offices across Canada, and our ongoing community presentations – we will remain accessible and available to Class Members, to assist as needed including in regard to documentation, regardless of where the Class Member lives.

We do this at no cost to Class Members.

MORE INFORMATION

23. How do I get more information?

BASIC INFORMATION ABOUT THIS SETTLEMENT

1. Why did I get this notice?

You received this Notice for one of three reasons:

First, you submitted an Indian Day Schools Class Action Registration Form to Gowling WLG. Your Registration Form provided Class Counsel with an up-to-date record on how to contact you with updates about the class action and a potential Settlement.

Second, someone you know sent you this information because they believe that this Settlement will impact your rights. Please read the entire Notice carefully as your legal rights will be affected even if you do nothing.

Third, you found this Notice in a public area. In an effort to reach as many Class Members as possible, these Notices have been sent to First Nations and Friendship Centres across Canada, as well as other groups and organizations. Please read the entire Notice carefully as your legal rights will be affected even if you do nothing.

2. What is an Indian Day School?

Indian Day Schools include all those schools established or designated as such by the Federal Department of Indian Affairs in which Indigenous students across Canada were required to attend by law (under the Indian Act), and were funded in part or solely by Canada. Unlike Indian Residential Schools, students did not reside at Indian Day Schools. Only in very limited circumstances (seasonal weather conditions etc.) would a student reside at an Indian Day School.

3. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “Plaintiffs” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are called a “Class” or “Class Members.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected, except for those who exclude themselves from the lawsuits.

4. What is the Indian Day School class action about?

The legal action, McLean v Canada (Court File No. T-2169-16), was brought to claim damages from Canada for harms suffered by students who attended an Indian Day School. Indian Day School students have reported suffering physical, sexual, and psychological abuse by teaching staff, officials, students and other third parties. In some cases, the abuse was severe. These abuses were in addition to students who were mocked, denigrated or humiliated by reason of their Indigenous culture and language. McLean v Canada seeks recognition of and justice for the harms inflicted on former students of Indian Day Schools and their family members.

The legal action was certified on consent as a class proceeding by Justice Phelan of the Federal Court on June 21, 2018.

The case was started by Garry McLean, who passed away before a Settlement was reached. The Court has appointed Roger Augustine and Claudette Commanda as Representative Plaintiffs for the Survivor Class. They may be contacted through Class Counsel at the address below.

5. Why is there a settlement?

Canada has agreed to an out-of-court settlement with Class Members in relation to its establishment and funding of Indian Day Schools and its subsequent control and management of the Schools. By reaching a settlement, the parties avoid the significant costs and uncertainty of a trial, as well as potential delays in obtaining a final judgment.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

6. Who is included in the Settlement?

Former Indian Day School students (“Survivor Class Members”) and their family members (“Family Class Members”) are included in this Settlement.

To be eligible as a Survivor Class Member, you must have attended at least one of the identified Indian Day Schools during the time that it was operated and/or controlled by Canada and you must have suffered a recognized harm as a consequence of your attendance. The identified Indian Day Schools are listed on a Schedule to the Settlement Agreement and available on the Class Action website. Each eligible Survivor Class Member will be required to provide supporting material for his or her claim.

Family Class Members will receive no direct compensation under the proposed Settlement. Instead, a $200,000,000 (CDN) Legacy Fund is being established to support projects for commemoration, wellness/healing, and the restoration and preservation of Indigenous languages and culture.

The Representative Plaintiffs and their lawyers think the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of all Class Members.

7. What if I am not sure whether I am included in the Settlement?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement, you may call Class Counsel with questions, visit www.IndianDaySchools.com or call the following toll free phone number: 1 (844) 539-3815.

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What does the Settlement provide?

If the Settlement Agreement is approved by the Federal Court, it will provide for direct compensation to Survivor Class Members who experienced harm while they were a student at a listed Indian Day School during the relevant period (“Eligible Class Members”). The listed Indian Day Schools are provided in Schedule K of the Settlement Agreement. Eligible Class Members will be required to apply to a Claims Administrator to receive compensation.

The Settlement Agreement also provides $200,000,000 (CDN) to support commemoration projects, health and wellness projects, and language and culture initiatives. This compensation will be made available by the McLean Day Schools Settlement Corporation, which will distribute the money as proposal-based funding to existing organizations and initiatives.

Canada has agreed to pay compensation to Eligible Class Members in accordance with the severity of harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School. This severity is measured against a Harms Assessment Grid that contains five (5) levels of compensation. The level and associated compensation are the following:

Level 1: $10,000 (CDN)

Level 2: $50,000 (CDN)

Level 3: $100,000 (CDN)

Level 4: $150,000 (CDN)

Level 5: $200,000 (CDN)

Under the Settlement, Eligible Class Members will receive a single payment in the amount associated with the most severe harm they suffered while attending an Indian Day School, irrespective of the number of schools attended. Each level contains verification requirements. The Harms Assessment Grid and other details are available in Schedule B of the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.indiandayschools.com.

9. How will the lawyers be paid?

No portion of Class Counsel fees will come from the compensation paid to Survivor Class Members or to the Legacy Fund. Canada has agreed to pay Class Counsel $55,000,000 (CDN) plus taxes for legal fees and disbursements.

Class Counsel fees and disbursements are subject to Court approval at the Settlement Approval Hearing.

10. When will I receive my payment?

If the proposed Settlement Agreement is approved by the Federal Court, and all appeals from that approval are resolved, Class Members can begin submitting their Applications.

Eligible Class Members will receive compensation after their Application has been reviewed and approved by the Claims Administrator. If the Claims Administrator requires additional information to review a claim, the time required to review and approve the Application may increase. Under certain circumstances, a Third Party Assessor may review the decision of the Claims Administrator with respect to the level of compensation being assigned to a claim.

An announcement will be made shortly before the Applications are made available.

11. What am I giving up in the Settlement?

If an Order is granted by the Court approving the Settlement of this action, the judgment will be binding on all class members who do not opt out of the proceedings.

If you do NOT opt out of the Settlement, as described below, and the proposed Settlement Agreement becomes final, you will not be able to advance a lawsuit of your own for Canada's management and control of Indian Day Schools. You will be "releasing" Canada from liability for all actions at Federal Indian Day Schools, but you will receive compensation in recognition of the harms that you experienced.

Nothing in this proposed Settlement requires you to give up your right to sue a province or religious institution for its involvement in its management or control of an Indian Day School.

The proposed Settlement Agreement provides a specific description of the Release. Please read the Settlement Agreement carefully and contact Class Counsel if you have any questions.

12. Can I remove myself from the Settlement?

The order of the Court, whether favourable or not, will bind all of the Class Members who do not opt out of the proceeding (Federal Courts Rules, Rule 334.32(5)(f)).

If you are an Eligible Class Member, you can remove yourself from the Settlement with an Opt Out Form found in Schedule H of the Settlement Agreement before the end of the Opt Out period. The Opt Out Period is sixty (60) days after the Federal Court approves the Settlement Agreement, if the Court chooses to do so.

More information on the Opt Out Period will be announced at www.IndianDaySchools.com.

RECEIVING A PAYMENT

13. How can I receive a payment?

If the proposed Settlement Agreement is approved by the Federal Court, all Class Members will be required to submit an Application to the Claims Administrator. The Claims Administrator will review your claim and make one of three determinations: (1) approve the claim; (2) deny the claim; or (3) request additional information.

If your claim is approved, you will receive compensation based on the Harms Assessment Grid provided in Schedule B of the Settlement Agreement. The compensation will be paid directly either to you, your court-appointed representative, or, in the event of your death, your estate executor.

Application forms will be available at www.IndianDaySchools.com or by calling the Claims Administrator after the proposed Settlement Agreement is approved by the Federal Court.

14. What if my claim is denied?

The Claims Administrator will notify you if your claim is denied.

Your Application will be denied if (a) you are not an Eligible Class Member or (b) you have already been compensated, in another proceeding, for your attendance at an Indian Day School.

15. What if I disagree with the level of compensation awarded?

If you are an Eligible Class Member and have not previously been compensated for your attendance at a Federal Indian Day School, the Claims Administrator will assess your Application and approve a level of compensation in accordance with the Harms Assessment Grid.

If the Claims Administrator approves your Application for a lower level of compensation than what you believe you are entitled to under the Harms Assessment Grid, you will have the option to provide further information and have your claim re-assessed in light of that further information. You will then be notified of the Claims Administrator's re-assessment.

If the Claims Administrator confirms its initial assessment, you have the option of having your claim reviewed by a Third Party Assessor. The decision of the Third Party Assessor is final.

The case was started by Garry McLean, who passed away before a Settlement was reached. They may be contacted through Class Counsel at the address below.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Canada has agreed to pay compensation to eligible Class Members in accordance with the severity of harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School. Compensation ranges from $10,000 (CDN) for harms associated with attendance at an Indian Day School to $200,000 (CDN) for repeated incidents of sexual abuse and/or physical assault causing long-term injury. Eligible Class Members will receive a single payment reflecting the most severe harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School, irrespective of the number of schools attended.

The settlement also includes a Legacy Fund that will provide $200,000,000 (CDN) to support commemoration projects, health and wellness projects, and language and culture initiatives.

CAN I OPT OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT?

The order of the Court, whether favourable or not, will bind all of the Class Members who do not opt out of the proceeding (Federal Courts Rules, Rule 334.32(5)(f)).

Opting out will preserve your rights to independently sue Canada for harms suffered while you were a student at an Indian Day School.

Class members will have the opportunity to opt out of the Settlement after May 2019 and approval by the Federal Court. More information on when and how to opt out will be posted on the Class Action Website if the Settlement is
