

Waiver Form Logo Design Contest

I, _____, agree to provide the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) with an Indigenous-themed logo designed for the RCMP Indigenous Policing Services (IPS) contest, held by the Upper Fraser Valley Regional Detachment (UFVRD) IPS unit. I agree to these terms and conditions:

1. Artist will design an Indigenous logo that symbolises the diverse roots of the region. A description of the logo will need to be provided, along with artist's full name, age, contact information and community name of where the artist is from.
2. This contest is open to community members of Kwantlen, Kwaw Kwaw Apilt, Soowahlie, Cheam, Seabird, Sts'ailes, Sq'ewlets, Chawathil, Shxw'ow'hamel and must be persons aged 10 to 18 years as of Tuesday, December 15, 2020.
3. Deadline for entries: submissions can be dropped off at the artist's respective band office up to 4:00 p.m. (PST) on Tuesday, December 15, 2020. Submissions can also be made electronically to IPS email: indigenouspolicing@rcmp-grc.gc.ca
4. The RCMP will select a winning logo design and a second-place runner-up logo design on Tuesday, December 22, 2020.
5. Prizes for the winning logo design and second-place runner up are:
  - JBL Partybox 100 – Bluetooth Speaker, valued at $299.99 or;
  - Apple AirPods 2nd Generation – Wireless Earbuds, valued at $268.98.The winner will choose which prize they would like and the runner up will receive the remaining prize.

- 6. The RCMP's decision is final and not subject to appeal or reconsideration.
- 7. The RCMP will notify selected winning logo artists by electronic mail and/or telephone on Tuesday, December 22, 2020.
- 8. The UFVRD IPS unit may use the winning logo design on any/all their fleet or swag.
- 9. All logo design submissions become the intellectual property of the Government of Canada. Participating artists agree to waive forever their copyright and intellectual property rights in favour of the Government of Canada in exchange for their participation in the contest to select the logo.
- 10. All artists who submit a logo design agree to waive all financial claims against Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Canada and any of her employees, officers, servants, agents, contractors and volunteers from all RCMP personnel for the use of their logos on police vehicles and all other uses by the RCMP.
- 11. The RCMP reserves the right to not use any of the logo designs submitted. Further, the RCMP reserves the right to decide the period of time during which the winning logo design remains in use on any/all fleet or swag.

_____
Artist Signature

_____
RCMP Representative

_____
Parent/Guardian Print & Signature

_____
Date