I am married to Bryson Fisher, and together we are raising 3 children and 2 nieces: Brooklynn, Dominic, Mason, nieces Taylen and Brianne.

I am proud to be running for Seabird Island Council in the 2026 election. I bring with me strong values of respect, honesty, caring, open-mindedness, and trustworthiness, along with a deep sense of curiosity and a commitment to continuous learning.

I am a dedicated listener who truly values the voices, perspectives, and experiences of our community members. I believe that meaningful leadership begins with understanding and collaboration.
